

Message from the President

Dear All

In our recent experience, we are coming to a deeper understanding of the words of Jesus: “The harvest is rich but the labourers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest to send out more labourers to his harvest” Mt, 9: 37. There is indeed so much more CLC could contribute to if only we had more members who would be generous enough to take on the tasks. If anyone is interested to know more please write to us on info@clcmalta.org

Yours in Christ
John Busuttill

From the Leadership Community (LC)

- This month the Leadership Community has concentrated its efforts on the CLC seminar theme. The theme is “Who is my Neighbour” – find out more
- This month we have started a system whereby LC tries to keep in touch with what is happening in the various communities. An email will be sent to the guides/co-ordinator (if there is no guide), asking them to tell LC only what you are working on in the community and how things are getting on in the community.
- The Secretariat is organising the database for publication of the directory. So please send any changes in your personal details to info@clcmalta.org This was also mentioned in the secretariat report presented at the AGM
- A copy of the contribution letter was given to the Guides during the AGM. We would like to encourage more members to pay their subscription by standing order. Any cheques should be made payable to CLC and passed on to your guide or sent directly to the CLC office in San Gwann. Thank you in advance for your support.

The Jesuit Jubilees

500 years have passed from St Francis Xavier's and Pierre Favre's "birth on earth" in 1506 (April 7 and 13 respectively), and 450 years from Ignatius Loyola's "birth in heaven" in 1556.

As part of the celebrations in Malta this month, Collaborator's day mass was held in the grounds of Mt St Joseph on Saturday 22nd April 2006. CLC organised the mass which included choir animation, a short play on the interacted lives of St Ignatius, San Frangisk Saverio and Blessed Pierre Favre, renewal of vows - baptismal, marriage and Jesuit priesthood. The Jesuits then hosted the guests to a small reception. The Jesuit Provincial thanked CLC - see letter.
